

20 Preschool Activities Jobs of a Preschooler

1. Draw a picture of "My Future Job".
2. Make a necklace using the materials of your choice...string, yarn, large beads, pasta, cereal, etc.
3. Grow bean seeds in resealable bag and watch them grow.
4. Create eyes, ears, nose, mouth, and hands from construction paper. Glue the features on to a brown paper lunch bag to create a puppet and discuss the five senses...seeing, hearing, smelling, tasting, and touching.
5. Create a weather collage by cutting out various weather pictures from magazines and gluing them to a piece of paper. Get even more creative with decorating the collage using crayons, markers, colored pencils, cotton balls, or whatever else seems weather related.
6. Make a microphone using whatever supplies you have on hand such as a toilet paper tube and aluminum foil rolled into a ball (or just grab a large wooden spoon). Once you have a microphone (whether made or imagined), sing the alphabet.
7. Count bear shaped crackers. Then eat them one by one until they disappear.
8. Discuss community helpers...teachers, police officers, firefighters, etc.
9. Take a "field trip" somewhere to learn more about someone's job. For example, visit a state park and explore the area with a park ranger.
10. Build towers. You can use cardboard blocks, various cardboard boxes (such as noodle boxes, cereal boxes, etc.), plastic blocks, plastic cups, craft sticks, marshmallows and toothpicks, or whatever else you can come up with.
11. Act out a play (or a puppet show using the handmade puppets).
12. Mold various creations using clay or moldable dough (store bought or handmade together).
13. Make simple treats. Then, eat them.
14. Make a poster of pets.
15. If in a classroom, create a chart showing pets that kids in the class have at home.
16. Mix salt in water and watch it disappear- just like magic!
17. Play follow the leader. Walk across a balance beam (if you have one) or walk on a line of tape on the floor.
18. Talk about traffic safety.
19. Play red light/ green light.
20. Paint a picture.
